GY RALLY REPORT - 2ND/14TH LIGHTHORSE MUSEUM TOUR

John and I would like to thank everyone who attended the GY Rally to the Gallipoli Army Barracks last weekend. The GY Rally is a special day for Vera Friar, providing her with a chance to share with all club members the memories of her late husband and the beautiful cars they once owned.

John and I breathed a sigh of relief when all members on the rally managed to find their way around the unexpected road works on Stewart Road, Enoggera. We regrouped at the front gates of the barracks, where we were met by our guide for the day, Captain Adele Catts. After ensuring we all understood what was expected of us (to try and behave), we made our way into the barracks to the Royal Australian Regiment National Memorial Walk and Contemplation Building where we enjoyed our morning tea and a brief history from Capt. Catts in the peaceful, bushie surrounds. Special thanks must go out to Vera for, once again, supplying a fantastic chocolate cake to share with all present. There wasn't much of it left by the end of morning tea!

We got back into our cars and made our way to the other side of the barracks, to the 2nd/14th Light Horse Regiment (Queensland Mounted Infantry) Museum. We were lucky enough to have the opportunity to explore an ASLAV vehicle which was on display for us. There were 2 AJ's which provided a 'familiarisation' overview of the vehicle, which of course the men found extremely interesting.

We then had the opportunity to explore the Light Horse Museum full of amazing artefacts of the past. When you had finished meandering through the light horse museum, you could then make your way to the Black Hat Museum located next door. However, by this time, some of our club members (who will remain unnamed) managed to find Club 42 (the bar). It didn't take long before there were a few more members and visitors enjoying an ice cold (and cheap) beverage.

Before all members attending realised, it was already after 1.00pm and we were running well and truly behind schedule. Captain Adele offered us a marquee conveniently setup beside the bar to hold our meeting, instead of heading back to the Memorial Walk as planned, which our President John enthusiastically accepted on behalf of all thirsty members. It was a very quick meeting with a lot of business discussed and passed without fuss.

A lot of members were once again not happy with the challenging questionnaire, but even though it was 'supposedly' difficult, there were not too many points separating the 1st & 2nd places. Even worse was the fact that there was a tie for 3rd place. The overall winners were Kevin & Margaret Greenaway, who now have the privilege of organising next years GY Rally. 2nd place went to Kim & Carol Bowers. 3rd and 4th places were decided by a toss of a coin, with 3rd being taken out by Peter & Gladys Rohan and Andy & Sally Byrne taking fourth.

We would like to thank everyone who attended and helped make this a great day for Vera (and all present). Big special thanks must go to our fantastic guide for the day, Capt. Adele Catts (who also just happens to drive an immaculate Zephyr).

Congratulations to Kevin & Margaret Greenaway for proving that the questionnaire wasn't all that hard!

THE WOBBLY WHEEL

Paddy, the Border Checkpoint Officer

Five Englishmen in an Audi Quattro arrived at an Irish border checkpoint. Paddy, the officer, stops them and tells them: "It is illegal to put 5 people in a Quattro, Quattro means four". "Quattro is just the name of the automobile," the Englishman retorts disbelievingly. "Look at the papers, this car is designed to carry five persons." "You cannot pull that one on me," replies Paddy. "Quattro means four. You have five people in your car and you are therefore breaking the law." The Englishman replies angrily, "You idiot! Call your supervisor over I want to speak to someone with more intelligence!" "Sorry," responds Paddy, "Murphy is busy with 2 guys in a Fiat Uno."

Another Paddy Joke...

Mick was in court for a double murder and the judge said, "You are charged with beating your wife to death with a spanner." A voice at the back of the courtroom yelled out, "You b*stard!" The judge continued, "You are also charged with beating your daughter to death with a spanner." Again, the voice at the back of the courtroom yelled out, "You b*stard!!!" The judge stopped, looked at the man in the back of the courtroom, and said, "Paddy, I can understand your anger and frustration at this crime, but I will not have any more of these outbursts from you or I shall charge you with contempt! Now what is the problem? Paddy, at the back of the court stood up and responded, "For fifteen years I lived next door to that b*stard. And every time I asked to borrow a spanner, he said he didn't have one!"

Yet another Paddy Joke ...

Paddy the Irishman died in a fire and was burnt pretty badly. So the morgue needed someone to identify the body. His two best friends, Seamus and Sean (also Irishmen), were sent for. Seamus went in and the mortician pulled back the sheet Seamus said "Yup, he's burnt pretty bad. Roll him over". So the mortician rolled him over. Seamus looked and said "Nope, it ain't Paddy". The mortician thought that was rather strange and then he brought Sean in to identify the body. Sean took a look at him and said, "Yup, he's burnt real bad, roll him over". The mortician rolled him over and Sean looked down and said, "No, it ain't Paddy". The mortician asked, "How can you tell?" Sean said, "Well, Paddy had two a***holes." "What, he had two a***holes???" said the mortician. "Yup, everyone knew he had two a***holes. Every time we went into town, folks would say, "Here comes Paddy with them two a***holes...."

The Wonders of Beer...

A man walks into a bar and asks for a beer. After drinking it, he looks in his shirt pocket and asks for another beer. After drinking that one, he looks in his shirt pocket again and asks for another beer. This happens about another seven times before the bartender asks him, "Why do you keep looking in your pocket?" The man replies, "I have a picture of my wife in there. When she starts to look attractive, then I'll go home."

The Perfect Future Mother-in-law...

A young man excitedly tells his mother he's fallen in love and is going to get married. He says, "Just for fun, Ma, I'm going to bring over 2 other female friends in addition to my fiancée and you try and guess which one I'm going to marry". The next day, he brings 3 beautiful women into the house and sits them down on the couch and they chat for a while. He then says, "Okay, Ma. Guess which one I'm going to marry. She immediately replies, "The red-head in the middle." "That's amazing, Ma. You're right, how did you know?" "I don't like her."

WEDDING CAR REQUESTS

Over the last couple of months John has received numerous requests for wedding cars. He has explained to everyone making the requests that due to club registration limitations, we are unable to assist.

Since requests have been in such high demand, we have offered to include brief details about these enquiries and that if any member was able to assist, for them to contact the people directly.

The following are some of the more recent requests received:

March 2008

We're having a 1930's theme and are finding it difficult to locate two vintage cars. They don't have to match and of course we'd be willing to pay for the drivers time (and would also be able to give them professional photos of the vehicle when we receive them). I can be contacted on 0410 927 469.

The wedding will be held at "Reids Place" in Scarborough possibly between 1.30pm and 5.30pm. The bride and groom have a 1934 Terraplane Phaeton included in their package. The problem is, there aren't many cars in south east queensland to hire that can match this car, especially for 8 people which is the rest of the bridal party! I can be contacted on 0430 277 719 or
