MEMORIAL RUN REPORT

Hi folks, as I was the lucky winner of the raffle on the run of 7th August, it's my luck also to present you with the Run Report – bear with me.

7th August Memorial Run was organized by Geoff & Gillian Smith to “Winya Winery”. It was an excellent run and I believe, enjoyed by all – thanks Geoff & Gillian.

A total of 20 cars and 1 motorbike, plus 36 people attended.

As we all gathered at the Sundowner we were met by Carol Bowers, who called in to say hello etc. Geoff & Gillian handed out the run sheet and Geoff presented each car with a playing card, as it was a Poker run for this event.

We all headed off up the highway then turned off onto the Steve Irwin Way to Beerwah. At Peachester, all were supposed to turn left into Commissioners Flat Road, I think Andy was heading for home and continued past. We had to turn around – lucky for us we were not the only ones. Arrived at Curice Park, Woodford for morning tea and our club meeting plus another card from Geoff.

At Winya Winery we had the pleasure of some wine tasting for those who wished and also the opportunity to purchase some of the local Angus beef.

A special thanks should go to the volunteers (they know who they are) who set out and cooked the steaks and sausages. It was a good spread, enjoyed by all. Geoff presented all with their last card and it came down to Alex and Andy who apparently were both holding similar cards: a pair of aces and a jack. The remaining deck was cut to see who would be the eventual winner and Alex drew the higher card.

Alex, with the Trophy in hand, reminded members what the Memorial run was in aid of: members who had passed on.

Thanks again Geoff and Gillian kind regards to all,
Sally Byrne.

Hi all members, We are at Calliope River. It is a free camp. Lots of people come in here. Yesterday we counted 60 caravans and motorhomes. We are near the historical village. Had a look at the village. While we were there the Gladstone vintage & classic car club. We had a chat about lots of things. They gave me their email marysmith8@bigpond.com They were a nice group. They are going to Gladstone swap & car boot sale next weekend. Please tell members we are heading north along the coast next stop is Rockhampton to have a look. Stan & Gloria.

- Geoff Kruger invited members to show their cars at the Strathpine State School's Centenary Fete 10th Sept. from 2p.m. plenty of secure parking available.

Raffle raised $117, won by Sally Byrne, 2nd & 3rd Phyllis Streeton.

The Memorial Run Trophy was won by Alex and Elaine Gallacher, Alex accepted the trophy, and explained that the trophy and run is held in memory of club members who have departed from us. Alex thanked Geoff, Gillian, Carol Bowers, Elaine for providing a delicious B.B.Q. lunch at the Winya Winery, Woodford.

CHACC Mid-Month/Mid-Week Run to Dekker Park - August 17th, 2011

With the sun shining, we all started to gather at the Sundowner to greet & meet! Was great to see Hudson & Ita (been absent lately thru illness). They came to say hullo and then off to a medical appointment. Good luck Huddy on your impending hospitalisation. Don't worry Ita, if he stays in more than the promised 3 days, we will make sure we will pick you up to go shopping!

10 vehicles, 16 members, 3 visitors and Champers!

With apologies from Hudson & Ita, & Kim, we meandered off to our alternative destination. Andy had been fore warned by Graham & Jan that Shorncliffe Pier Park was a NO NO due to the EKKA holiday crowds. Alternatively we headed to Dekker Park where Jan & Graham arrived an hour before us to set up camp! Why don't people who have an EKKA holiday go to the Ekka? No, they tend to go picnicking and make it difficult for the likes of CHACC to get parking and a suitable site. Never the less, we did manage to get all together and thoroughly enjoyed our venue. Champers also enjoyed muscling up to all the big dogs at the park.

Good to see Bob & Gloria back on deck and finally, we get to meet the famous grandson of Alex & Elaine, along with Jack's mum Heidi. Couldn't wipe the smile off Elaine's face as she proudly showed him off. As usual Andy & Sally's questions proved interesting and member's couldn't have fared too good if Betty & I won, as I know of at least 4 we got wrong! Congratulations also to Bob & Gloria who also picked up a prize!

Thanks again to Andy & Sally for a great day.
