Notes from the Editor.

Our SCN is getting larger each month, and this particular issue could be overwhelmingly bulky with some of the inclusions. To this end I have decided to put a couple of the items from the QHMRC (Queensland Historic Motoring Council) on the website, instead of including them in the body of our magazine.

One of them deserves some explanation - some time ago the QHMRC decided to investigate the various SIV (Special Interest Vehicle) schemes operating in the various states, with a view to possibly lobbying the Transport Department to amend our scheme to a less restrictive one. Victoria was discussed as a good model.

The review on the website lists the various schemes, and alongside this is the letter from the current President explaining that there will be no action taken on any proposed changes, the status quo will remain.

The other posting is just a copy of the QHMRC committee and general meeting minutes.....Happy reading.

CHACC Run September 9th to Jimna & Peach Trees

A lovely morning for a run in the country saw 18 vehicles arrive at the Sundowner for today's run out to Peach Trees via Woodford and Kilcoy.

Alf D'Acunto and Andy and Sally Byrne had last minute family matters to attend to and were unable to accompany us on the run but we did have Karen and John Cartwright and Mal and Karen Ireland, both in their Ford Mustangs (who later joined the club) and Zeta and Nathan Boyd with their three children after a bit of an absence from our club runs. Quite a good turnout for the day!

Prior to this run, I had discussed the method of awarding the major prize for this run with our President and it was agreed that a more equitable way of selecting a winner was by having a "lucky draw" as some people are better at Trivia questions than others.

With this in mind, the run sheet, the trivia quiz and a lucky number was handed out to each car in attendance.

We left the Sundowner, and then proceeded on to Woodford before turning onto Neurum Road for a pleasant drive before returning to D'Aguilar H/way just prior to Kilcoy.

We stopped at the rest area on your left just over the bridge where we had morning tea. After morning tea, we continued our journey to Jimna and Peach Trees.

Again, this is a very pleasant drive along a country road.

There was a bit of drama about 10 kilometres from our destination when Lindsay and Valmay shredded a rear tyre and fortunately, it was near an area that was used for a road base storage dump and he was able to get off the road and onto a generally clear and level spot to change the wheel. Kim and Carol, Huddy, Don & Phyllis Streeton and myself stopped to give assistance. I was told to keep going and look after our members and visitors. All must have gone well as this group were only about ten minutes behind us after we reached our destination but Huddy had arranged to meet up with an old colleague at Jimna and we lost him for the rest of the day.

As seen from the photo of our members relaxing, this is a very pleasant spot for a picnic. However it would seem to be a great spot for meandering cows so there was some selective stepping to be done after happening upon the first "patty". We had lunch then a short meeting and announced the winner of the trivia - Kim and Carol Bowers.

The previously distributed lucky numbers were placed in a container borrowed from Neville and Barbara and one of Zeta and Nathan's children was asked to draw the ticket for the "Aussie Brakes" Trophy and prize which was won by your host for the day. Brakes" Trophy and prize which was won by your host for the day.

Most took a stroll around the area to check out the kangaroos and other attractions before heading for home. My apologies for the bit of dirt road and I had to wash "Doris" the next day and tighten up the exhaust pipe brackets as it was rattling a bit after the bumps and potholes!

Raffle was drawn and 1st prize went to Lew & Pat Vincent, smiling, at far left, and the second prize to Zeta & Nathan Boyd, who perhaps were reluctant to be seen together??

The third prize was justifiably won by young Cynthia McLeod, (left) who was already making plans to get hubby Don to build a bigger trophy cabinet!! Peter's Trivia quiz questions were marked and winner was Carol Bowers, who, when this photo was taken, looked reasonably happy with her prize

CHACC Run Report Sunday 7th October Captain Burke Park via Decker Park.

Sunday the 7th was a nice sunny day and everyone was enjoying a chat in the shade under the trees at the Sundowner. It was beginning to get warm at this stage of the day, we were then given our brief and questionnaire sheet for the run and headed off.

A total of 11 cars (7 classics & 4 modern) attended the run.

We travelled down the highway taking the Deception Bay turn off down through to Anzac Ave., Rothwell then via Elizabeth Ave and over the Ted Snout Bridge to our morning tea stop at Decker Park, Brighton - by the Bay.

A great spot, plenty of shade under the trees and a nice breeze coming off the water. Very enjoyable as the day was starting to heat up and some of us had to be reminded to move to continue on the run.

We now headed off to our final destination - Captain Burke Park under the Storey Bridge, Kangaroo Point via Sandgate Rd, Northgate, Hamilton, The Valley and over the Storey Bridge.

Fortunately we all managed to find parking without any problems and with the assistance of our organisers, we made our way to a spot in the shade under the Bridge overlooking the Brisbane River which gave us a great view of the city. Apart from having to move a couple of times to follow the shade, it was a nice spot to have our lunch and appeared to be enjoyed by all.

The Run Quiz was won by Neils & Aileen Andersen with the Booby Prize going to Gladys & Peter Rohan.

Raffle Results:- 1st prize went to Sally & Andy Byrne, 2nd prize to Brenda & Ron Byrnes with 3rd going to Jan & Graham Beatson.

It would be remiss of us not to mention the fine work done at each meeting by our Club Photographer.

At left is one of his more artistic framings of our gathering under the bridge at Captain Burke park.

Well done Graham, and thanks for your efforts each month.

It was a great day - good company and was enjoyed by all. Many thanks to our run organisers, Carol & Graham for this great day.
