Sunday Run 2nd August 2015

Another perfect sunny day greeted us for a quiet drive through winding country roads and picturesque valleys. 18 members joined us for this run with the Glasshouse Mountains forming a great backdrop in many places.

I wish I could have stopped for photos but then everyone would have stopped, and caused a traffic jam. After following these meandering roads for some time we arrived out of the bush and into Peace Park at Landsborough for our morning tea stop.

Waiting to meet us was Jenny & Alf with the kettle boiling (well not quite). We all settled in for a cuppa in this pretty little place (loved the white fence around the oval). Peter had set a quiz on the back of the run sheet and in his absence I set about getting it sorted and it was duly won by Arthur Hall with Alex running a close second.

Alex donated his prize to Erin Saunders as he did not want to spoil his figure (tongue in cheek, - no offence Alex).

We then packed up and continued to Maroochy Botanic Gardens through another route of winding country roads, although many opted to go straight to the venue, and missed all the adventure.

Alex said he was having a ball in his MG with all the gear changes required. We were fortunate enough to get a shelter big enough for us all to have lunch together. During this time tickets were sold and the raffle was drawn and won by

Barbara & Neville in their absence,
2nd was Erin Saunders,
3rd was Jenny D'Acunto.

We all began to drift off and had a really easy drive home down the highway.

Thanks to Peter and Gladys for organising this run and on behalf of everyone, we wish you well in your recovery.
See Ya - Grumps

Mid-Week Run Wednesday 19th August 2015

With many apologies for medical appointments and 'away' and 'unables', we were more than happy with 8 vehicles, 14 members and 2 more joining us briefly for an hour at the destination.

Weather wise we were blessed with full sun and no rain. Somehow managed to lose Don & Val around Nudgee, however our Trade Coast Central representative ran to re-direct them into the venue and get them there eventually.

I have already sent our hosts a thank you for their hospitality on the day and from various feed backs I have had from members, everyone enjoyed the venue, the tour and excellent memorabilia bringing Brisbane's history back-to-life. One of our members thinks he recognised his Auntie (now 90 years old) in one of the photos. This photo (compliments of our host) has since been forwarded to him in the hope we get a bit more info and maybe there is a story there!

Special thanks to Cassie Eivers who was instrumental in setting up the display in the Interpretive Centre and all other aspects of the Heritage Park displays. Kim and I intend to go back and spend a couple of hours going through the extensive digital displays, taking our time to read and take it all in. Uniquely interesting!

To top it off the 'Hangar 5' café put on excellent food and service – so definitely worth a return trip.

Special thanks to all members who made the effort to come and have a look.

(photos – compliments of Cassie Eivers – Trade Coast Central Project Director)

SOCIAL UPDATE:

- MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS: - A big thank you to all members who managed to pay their renewals prior to the end of our financial year (31st August). Renewals are still coming in and we thank you in anticipation if you haven't quite got around to it as yet.
- LATE NEWSLETTER: Apologies to all members for not getting this out earlier. Our very capable Editor was away overseas and left it to me to get the Sept issue out - bad move! I was waiting for her to get back to assist in inserting some photos because I obviously don't have her expertise! Welcome back Aileen & Neils - do hope you enjoyed your holiday.

DOB-INS

Special call to ALL members

I know it's a long way off, BUT things happen throughout the year to members that I can & will get them for at the annual Xmas party, just when they think everyone has forgotten, I can pounce.....with YOUR help.

Thanks members, look forward to hearing from you!!!!

Oh & "mums the word!!!"

Cheers Shirl

BUM A RIDE Feel like catching up with your CHACC mates but don't feel like driving?

Unable to drive – not feeling well, but need an outing? Run too long – don't feel like driving that far? If you answered YES to any of the above scenarios – then pick up the phone and request a lift or wander down to the Sundowner and get a lift from there!

SEQUEL TO PHOTO FIND AUGUST 19th Run From Lew & Pat Vincent

The story behind this photo is quite a simple one, although the odds of seeing the photo in the Heritage Park Display was probably a million to one chance. The image is thought to have been taken in the summer of 1943. It was wartime and our men enlisted in the war effort overseas. American warships frequented Brisbane on shore leave. Brisbane, being a friendly country type town (back then), was well received by the Americans. General Douglas MacArthur was also based in the town centre at the corner of Edward & Queen Streets. When a warship berthed in Brisbane, the sailors would disembark and march in formation down Queen St and turn into George St. Here the men would break ranks and merge with the excited crowds (mainly women) exchanging greetings, autographs etc.

Dances and other entertainment were organised, with inner city churches opening their doors seven days a week to provide a meeting place with food and drinks. Among the hosts were my Aunts (sisters Muriel Stocks, facing the camera, born in 1923 (now deceased) and Thelma Stocks, partly seen on the extreme left of the photo. She was born in 1925, still living aged 90 years. Thelma recalls the happy welcoming occasions when the ships came in. On a darker side, the "Battle of Brisbane" took place down the end of Adelaide Street, where overzealous servicemen and local Brisbane men exchanged fisticuffs over their women folk. The brawl broke out onto the street where it took some time for the local constabulary to bring proceedings under control. Our thanks to Cassie Eivers (Trade Coast Central's project manager) for obtaining the photo from their archives and forwarding on an electronic copy.

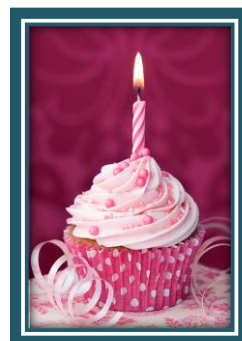

Congratulations to the Birthday Girl

Recipe New Zealand Lollie Cake

100g butter

1 tin condensed milk

2 packet Malt biscuits crushed, but with some larger pieces left in.

2 packet hard marshmallows ("Eskimo's", Fruit puffs,) cut into thirds or quarters.

5 Colored musk sticks

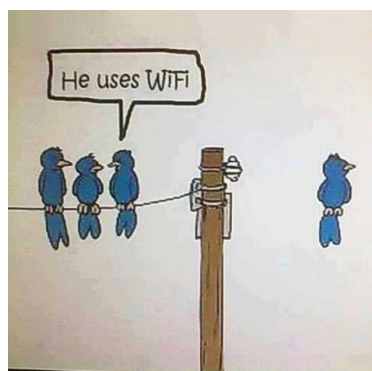

1 Cup desiccated coconut for coating the outside.

Melt the butter in a saucepan over a very low heat so it doesn't burn.

Add the condensed milk to the melted butter, still over a very low heat, and stir the two together until the butter completely disappears.

(Don't be tempted to use high temp, it will scorch on the bottom of the pan very quickly) set aside to cool. Chop the hard marshmallows into thirds or quarters and put into a large baking bowl. Crush the Malt biscuits into fine crumbs with just a few bigger pieces. Mix the Malt biscuits in with the chopped hard marshmallows. Add condensed milk mix to the biscuit and marshmallow, using clean hands to squish it all together. Squeeze it together firmly, molding it into a log shape. Roll it gently in the coconut to cover the outside and ends. Wrap log plastic wrap and refrigerate until firm (overnight is even better) then cut into slices.

As I grow older.....

My mind doesn't just wander...

Sometimes it buggers off completely!
