Secretaries Report April 2016

April is upon us and the year seems to be flying along. As the weather gets a bit cooler I don't mind but it sure seems to be staying up there in the high 20s.

Our April run had 18 vehicles, 7 were modern, and 3 classics eligible for SP plates and the rest were a mix of older vehicles. Hopefully as the weather gets cooler the older vehicles will be much more enjoyable to drive. It turned into a great day and a good roll up.

Andy Byrne has changed the run destination for the May run and I am sure it will end up at an enjoyable spot. I will not be able to attend due to a prior engagement and I submit my apologies for Gladys and myself.

I have asked our previous secretary to take some minutes for me so don't give her a hard time and keep the meeting short!

Our run being organised by Graham Beatson is drawing near and promises to be a really good day out. This is our Trophy run and I am hoping we can get our sponsor to attend on the day. That's it for this month and I hope to see you at mid-month runs in April and May.

Peter

Sunday Run 2nd April 2016

The gathering at the Sundowner was an omen for the run to be enjoyable. The weather was fine with temperature expected to be in mid 20s and 18 vehicles turned up with 30 members and 3 visitors.

Off we went up the Bruce and stopping at Eumundi for morning tea. Jenny and Alf were there to meet us at the designated park behind the area which is used for the Eumundi markets, however, the lead vehicle decided that the first toilet block to be seen behind this area must be the spot so we all followed into the parking area and proceeded to set up for morning tea. A short while later the secretary received a phone call asking "where are you"? Jenny and Alf were waiting just up the road at the real park! We had stopped at the wrong spot! As we were all set up they came down to us and we all gathered under some trees where we had morning tea.

At this point Charlie and Sandy had to leave us as Sandy was not feeling very well. During morning tea we conducted a General Meeting with plenty to discuss leaving the secretary with some work to do before our next run.

We had our normal raffle during the meeting and it was good to see Arthur and Noelene win the big tub of goodies as they were about to celebrate their 57th wedding anniversary during the week.

We then packed up before departing for Tewantin's Royal Mail Hotel for lunch. The parking at the hotel was quite good which was surprising as the hotel is very popular and also it was still school holiday time but we all got a park reasonably close.

Jenny had booked a table for the club and we were all quickly seated and ordering our foods. And at $10 lunch specials a go we all enjoyed a good meal. All in all a good days outing! Thanks Jenny and Alf.

Gladys and I did a detour to do some visiting before heading back down the highway about 2 hours later. Were we the only ones who got caught up in the traffic going south? The traffic was backed up to the Caloundra turnoff due to an accident at the Elimba Creek Bridge on the Bruce Highway. I took the alternate route towards Landsborough and Steve Irwin Way but still took us 3 hours to get home! Well, that's one of the joys of motoring! See you all next rally.
Peter

CHACC Mid-Week Run 13th April 2016

As mentioned in previous run reports, there is no requirement to arrive at the Sundowner at the ungodly hour of 8:30am. But... it seems that participants in our late morning festivities need to arrive earlier than the 10:30am scheduled start time so that you can participate in an unsanctioned meeting under the awning at the foresaid motel. So your correspondent arrived refreshed and unhurried a little after 10:00am only to be berated for his tardiness?? Not a good start for what turned out to be a delightful run!

This morning's run had been organised by Jan and Graham Beatson, who provided what seemed on the surface to be an easy to follow run sheet, but more about "degree of difficulty" later. Suitably caffeinated, the members of the illegal gathering - eyes by now wide open - set about departing for our destination, "The Dayboro Bakery" or "Pie Shop" as it is referred to by our picture snapper Mr B. Taoism is an ancient Chinese religion and philosophy. The writings of the Tao Te Ching promote natural harmony with nature. These writings are considered to be influenced by Buddhist ideals, Confucian philosophy and traditional ancient Chinese mysticism. For this reason, your correspondent was inclined to forsake the position of leader, and rather than "tread his own path in the wilderness" decided to follow another of the flock to our destination. Placing your trust in followers of similar beliefs is one of the reasons we join clubs, assuming that those who can drive our classic automobiles with care and dexterity, will at least be able to follow simple directions typed neatly on a piece of paper. Bad assumption your correspondent was "led astray" by a fellow disciple and his partner - who will remain nameless, but if you're interested they drive an immaculate dark blue Mustang Fastback! Enough said!

Despite taking the shortcut out of the Sundowner, we managed to arrive at our destination AFTER all our other members - to my great embarrassment, two late arrivals, and it wasn't even midday. However, the delicious treats awaiting us in the said "pie shop", so no further recriminations ensued. After purchasing suitable victuals (look that one up), from the mouth-watering array before us, both sweet as well as savoury, we retired to the outside tables under the welcome shade of some large umbrellas. Andy Byrne made extremely hard work of planting himself at the table, whilst alongside, his erstwhile spouse Sally was busily scribbling misdemeanors (real and imagined) in the dreaded Sergeant at Arms notebook.

Lest there be any misunderstanding of our admiration for Sally Byrne once again assuming the mantle of "Sergeant at Arms" let us all put it to rest now. She undertakes her duties with an eye for detail, inventiveness and most importantly good humour. And we all acknowledge her fund raising efforts with thanks, and similar good humour.

Anyhow, after a sustained period of silence, due to the consumption of said victuals - except for Peter Rohan who insisted that tomato sauce was not an essential accompaniment for a pie (blasphemy - NB Sally-substantial future fine) we engaged in our usual discussion of the ills of modern society, the problems of the world, and the advantages of electronic ignition over points and condenser systems. The latter was, in your correspondent's opinion, just a ploy to impress Frank Tenney, who had come along with his beautiful Corvette convertible to see what sort of people he would be mixing with if he joined our club.

As is our want, suitably refreshed, relieved and contented, we said our goodbye's and congratulated Graham and Jan on a wonderful run, with a suitable (meaning - toilets nearby) destination. Thanks for a great run!
Your faithful unabashed and unbowed correspondent.

PART NO. 7421310

Recipe Anzac Slice

1 cup plain flour
1 cup rolled oats
1 cup desiccated coconut
125 g butter
1/3 cup golden syrup
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 tsp bicarbonate of soda

Preheat oven to 170C (150C fan forced). Line a slice pan with baking paper, with sides extending over long sides. Combine flour, oats and coconut in a large bowl, make a well in the centre. Combine butter, golden syrup and brown sugar in a small saucepan. Stir over a medium heat until butter melts and mixture is smooth. Add the bicarbonate of soda and stir to combine. Pour wet mixture over dry ingredients and stir until evenly combined. Spread into prepared pan and smooth with the back of a spoon. Bake for 20 minutes. Cool in pan. Lift out using the paper and cut into 20 bars. Keep in an air tight container

Botox and nose drops and needles for knitting,
Walkers and handrails and new dental fittings,
Bundles of magazines tied up in string,
These are a few of my favourite things.

shutterstock · 119787181

Cadillacs and cataracts, hearing aids and glasses,
Polident and Fixodent and false teeth in glasses,
Pacemakers, golf carts and porches with swings,
These are a few of my favourite things.

When the pipes leak, when the bones creak,
When the knees go bad,
I simply remember my favourite things,

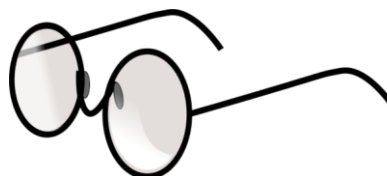

And then I don't feel so bad.
Hot tea and crumpets and corn pads for bunions,
No spicy hot food or food cooked with onions,
Bathrobes and heating pads and hot meals they bring,
These are a few of my favourite things.

Back pain, confused brains and no need for sinnin',
Thin bones and fractures and hair that is thinnin',
And we won't mention our short shrunken frames,
When we remember our favourite things,

When the joints ache, when the hips break,
When the eyes grow dim,
Then I remember the great life I've had,
And then I don't feel so bad.
