UPCOMING EVENTS:

Sunday 5th May

(Labour Day Long Weekend) Pub Lunch
Organised by Jenny & Stan, This is a run to Linville finishing at the delightful Linville Hotel.
Meals are typical small country Pub - cheap, and plentiful. This will be a great run. Don't miss it!

Wednesday 23rd May

Another interesting run Devised by our erstwhile member David & Marie, so it is guaranteed to be a beauty! Details next issue.

Sunday 2nd June

This will be a "Mystery" run, Organized by Peter & Gladys Rohan. Peter really knows his way around the hinterland and environs so it is bound to be an interesting jaunt!.

Wednesday 12th June

Those of you gourmets who remember last year's run catered by Frank Tenney's daughter, Hai will be pleased to know she has agreed to do another for us on this run. But...WE NEED NUMBERS FOR CATERING. Please let me or Carol or Scotty know if you're coming, otherwise if last time was any indication there may not be enough to go around

Secretary's Scribbles April 2019

What great weather Mother Nature put on for members to stretch the legs of their classic on the joint run with BNAAA which took us out to Paul and Noi's farm at Bauraba Creek where we were once again treated to great country hospitality coupled with a feast of fine food and live music.

Out on the road for the day we had 10 classics, 1 modern, 19 members and 6 visitors. "BNAAA Club had 12 vehicles and 28 members. After a morning tea stop at Kilcoy where CHACC and BNAAA met up a convoy of fine machinery headed off via Toogoolawah and Esk to the destination. A small pause was enforced at Esk as a number of vehicles were pulled over at a breathalyser however all was well and the convoy was soon back on the road.

The SIV's Impromptu Runs scheme is now fully operational for financial members and a number of members of CHACC have signed on and are now eligible to plan their own trips. If you're wanting to make use of this initiative send a message to Aldona through Facebook to have your name included.

Continuing on from previous issues of SCN, if you happen to be seeking difficult parts for your pride and joy you can advertise for these in the SCN. Other clubs have access to our SCN and one of their members may have just the part you're looking for.

Results of raffle

1. Gwen O'Connor. BNAAA - $40 gift card
2. Duck BNAAA - $20 cash (Bonus)
3. Dick Perry BNAAA - $10 cash (Bonus)
4. Mary Harvey BNAAA - Small mystery prize
5. Gordon with John Small mystery prize
6. Peter and Tootsje Small mystery prize
7. Jack BNAAA Small mystery prize

WENESDAY 17th APRIL 2019 SAMFORD PUB Mid-Week Run

Only 10 members 6 vehicles turned up at the Sundowner for our run to Samford. Fortunately 4 members and 1 visitor joined us at Samford – bringing us back to a respectable number. Thanks to Peter & Toosje Davis for a very spectacular run up through Mt. Mee and surrounds. Everything looked so green and beautiful. We were warned on the run sheet of road works on the Mt. Mee road but hadn't anticipated the 15 minutes plus wait time. Was too much for Kim who needed his toilet stop so he took off to the bushes. Andy & Sally joined us at Dayboro and we continued on, enjoying the scenery. Yes I did hear numerous Bell birds calling out to us after the roadworks. It was uniquely pleasing to the ear. At the Samford Pub we were joined by NEW returning members, Max & Julie West, along with granddaughter Sarah who has grown up so much since we last saw her quite a few years back. Max & Julie live at Strathpine and still have their 1957 Ford Zephyr convertible. Great (too much) lunch as usual at the Samford Pub. Very enjoyable day, excellent weather, company and food.

Congratulations to our members

CHACC POLICY STATEMENT FOR IMPROMPTU EVENTS (24/4/2019)

Queensland Transport and Main Roads Department has agreed to broaden the scope of the SIVS Registration scheme.

The Scheme does not permit any variation from the exiting SIVS scheme in relation to entitlement to SIVS registration, hiring out of vehicles or the parameters for acceptable use of SIVS registered vehicles. i.e. It is not permissible to add Impromptu Events for driving to work or go shopping. The maximum number of Impromptu Events allowable for each member per year will be 60 for each SIVS registered vehicle when combined with normal Club calendar of events. As the Impromptu Event will generally be 1 day duration, it is acknowledged that certain circumstances may necessitate extending this period within reason.

Prior to departure the individual member will be solely responsible for the Impromptu Event to be properly listed with the Club and they can access documentary evidence if required by Police or Transport Department officials.

The Members to check with their insurer in relation to extra usage for Impromptu Events.

The Club executive have the discretionary power to deny access to Impromptu Events to any member who fails to follow agreed policy or becomes a non-financial member of the Club.
